Vision Boards

You know the old saying "Seeing is Believing? Creating a vision board is a fun, innovative tool that assists you in manifesting your dreams.

Using nature as your backdrop, Victoria Feldman provides a vision board experience that combines the power of the mind's imagination and the grandeur of the outdoors to create a tangible representation of your present goals and future dreams.

If you love feeling like a child again, without a care in the world, this workshop is the ultimate body, mind, spirit connection.
